„Relationship between Media and Judiciary ”

Organizer: Association of Independent Electronic Media (ANEM)

Date: 30 October 2014 (Thursday)

Time: 14.00 - 16.00/16.30

Place: Media Center, Belgrade, Terazije 3, II floor

Dear Madam/Sir,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to take part in the ANEM Round Table „Relationship between Media and Judiciary“, to be held on 30 October 2014 (Thursday) at the Media Center, Belgrade, starting at 14.00.

The event will gather representatives of judiciary, media/journalists' associations and media, as well as other interested parties.

ANEM is of opinion that the implementation of reforms in the media sector, creation of a more favorable media environment and the improvement of the media and journalists' position requires finding solutions for the problems that have been a burden to the media sector for a while. Among the problems are those of the mutual relationship between the media and the judiciary. Therefore, ANEM is organizing this round table with the aim to initiate dialogue between the media sector and the judiciary about the said problems and possible ways of overcoming them, and also to contribute to the establishment of constructive cooperation between the media and the judiciary.

The Round Table is organized within ANEM project "Legal Monitoring of the Serbian Media Scene", financially supported by the Civil Rights Defenders and the Open Society Foundation, Serbia.

The speakers at the event will be:

- Dragica Popesku, Phd, Judge of the Appellate Court in Belgrade
- Omer Hadžimerović, Judge of the Appellate Court in Belgrade and Deputy President of the Judges' Association of Serbia
- Goran Ilić, PhD, Deputy Public Prosecutor of the Republic of Serbia and President of the Association of Public Prosecutors and Deputy Public Prosecutors of Serbia
