

The sixteenth magazine of the TV series “Step by Step”

The topic of the 16th magazine of the TV series “Step by Step” is the encouragement of better life of children and youth

The first story is from Uzice

Milos and Sara are members of the students’ parliament at “Slobodan Sekulic” elementary school in Uzice. They are also the peer tutors in the program of suppressing violence in schools. The program “Schools without Violence” has been implemented here since 2005 and has become regular part of this school’s plans.

The second story comes from Belgrade

With a variety of courses, the Youth Office of the Palilula Municipality in Belgrade offers many opportunities for young people to acquire a range of new skills and knowledge. Volunteers from EU countries are also among the trainers. Darijan from Slovenia, for example, is the lecturer at the Italian language course and a tutor at the comic strip and animation workshop.

The third story is from Sombor

Adela and Dejana, high schools students in their senior year, together with many other students in Sombor Grammar School, like to spend their leisure time at the “ŠOK” (SYC) – school’s youth club. The club was originally opened on the initiative of students and thanks to their voluntary work.
